PROFILE

I'm Yohannes Fikre Eshete, a passionate and detail-oriented Computer Science student with strong web and mobile development skills. I specialize in HTML, CSS, JavaScript, React, React Native, Python, and the MERN stack, with hands-on experience building user-friendly websites and applications. In addition, I bring expertise in graphic design and digital consulting, allowing me to create visually appealing and high-performing digital solutions. I'm driven by creativity, problem-solving, and a deep interest in technology and entrepreneurship, constantly seeking to deliver innovative projects that make an impact.
